

Consequences of Privatization

Contributed by Administrator
Friday, 22 June 2007

Dr. Majorie Cohen of Simon Fraser University has written two very important papers on the disasters to be expected if the corporations get away with BC power and achieve their goal of breaking the public monopoly. If they do they would demand deregulation and receive for themselves the public wealth from public rivers without public compensation in perpetuity.

- Gutting Power (PDF)
- High Tension (PDF)